ETHICS: The Rule of Law or Unfettered Discretion: The Prosecutors on Trial
James Suller, Esq. – Denver, CO
James Dundie Suller is Chief Deputy Regulation Counsel in charge of the Litigation Division of that office. He recently completed a 226 page trial in Arizona in which his office was appointed to investigate and, if necessary, prosecute the former Maricopa County Attorney and two of his deputies for ethical violations over a period of years. The trial resulted in the disbarment of Attorney Thomas and was Maricopa County Attorney and his deputy USA substitution.
